

Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer

Service Agreement

Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer provides customised training and behaviour modification programmes for dogs and their owners and/or guardians.

The success of dog training and behaviour modification relies on your dog's (or dog's) ability to learn and your commitment to helping them do that. The aim is to change not only the dog's (or dogs') behaviour but also the behaviour of those who live and care for their dog (or dogs). In this way a happy, successful outcome is more likely for the dog (or dogs) and their owner/s and/or guardian/s.

Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer is qualified in and operates through force-free training and behaviour modification methods, currently regarded as best practice in training and behaviour modification circles. Canine training and behaviour is an evolving discipline. Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer programmes are, therefore, subject to change over time, to reflect advances in dog care, training and development. Also, as you and your dog (or dogs) grow and develop within the Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer programme, your needs and your dog's (or dogs') needs will change. Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer provides short-term and long-term advice, as required, to reflect these changes.

Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer programmes are conducted in a safe, controlled manner. Owner/s and/or guardian/s of any dog (or dogs) using the services of Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer must ensure that their dog (or dogs) are safe and under control at all times and most particularly when involved in the Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer programme.

Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer, while operating to the highest professional standards in training and behaviour modification with you and your dog (or dogs) accepts no responsibility for or liability for injury caused to your dog (or dogs) or to any person (or persons) or to any animal (or animals) or to any property (or properties) damaged or lost during the course of the Ali Ramsey Dog Trainer training and behaviour modification programme.
